Teacher of Religious Education – Full Time

Start date: September 2024

Salary MPR/ UPR

ECT Applications Welcomed

Courage Commitment Compassion

We are looking for a passionate Teacher of Religious Education to take advantage of this exciting opportunity to establish the subject in our school. The successful candidate will join a committed team of staff within the Humanities Faculty. They will be an excellent and enthusiastic teacher, looking to join our community-focussed 11-16 school where we go the extra mile to give our students the best provision we can offer. Someone who would proactively promote our core values of Courage, Commitment and Compassion – ensuring that they are brought to life through the taught curriculum and through your contribution to extra-curricular activities. You would be joining us at an exciting time on the school's journey: we are an Ofsted Good School; our student roll is growing and we have put a lot of work into reviewing our school curriculum. You will also be joining a very committed, loyal and welcoming group of staff who are proud to serve this community.

- You would be joining us at an exciting time on the school's upward journey: our student roll is growing and we have made significant changes to curriculum planning and delivery
- We can offer you the opportunity to work collaboratively with our primary and secondary partners for the benefit of all students in our community
- We are an outward looking school, always looking to develop our innovative high-quality practice through our partnerships with others
- You will receive extensive CPD opportunities both within school, locally and nationally
- We are a friendly, innovative school situated in the centre of the beautiful county of North Yorkshire bordering the Yorkshire Dales National Park, offering a high quality of life. The school is only a few minutes away from the A1 making it easily accessible from Teesside, York, Leeds and Newcastle.
